PETERSBURG
Home for Ladies
SINCE 1925

Our "Ladies' Home" Journal

An historic day for Petersburg...

Residents, staff, Board Members, youth volunteers and long-term supporters of the Ladies' Home, joined together for a history making moment as Petersburg Home for Ladies celebrated 97 years of elegant living with exceptional care.

Poplar Lawn Park is fraught with decades of stories spanning from tactical war maneuvers in 1812 through weekend picnics held by the Historic Poplar Lawn Association. As a tribute to our historic location, and in honor of our founding in 1925, we took to the architecture-filled streets, quaint corridors and whimsical pathways of our city for a 2.5K Anniversary Walk within the Poplar Lawn Historic District. Joined by Councilman Charlie Cuthbert and Historic Poplar Lawn Association President Joel Erb, we commemorated the anniversary of the Ladies Home while ascertaining the positive future of our region.

Cookout Season Is Here!

The Culinary Team of Petersburg Home for Ladies does it all. From grandiose displays to old fashioned grilled burgers! When summer times rolls around they fill it with lemonade, barbeque chicken, homemade potato salad and the kind of southern comforts we cherish at heart.

This year our ladies once again rank among the citizen scientists who believe in the process of life-long learning. In partnership with organizations such as Project Monarch Watch and the Virginia Master-Naturalist Program, our ladies “give back” by rearing, tagging and releasing monarch butterflies.

Flower beds and herb gardens hold hidden treasures and our ladies enjoy creatively unlocking their beauty. Whether softly embracing the leaves of lambs ear, sorting through ripening tomatoes or arranging gladiolas stems to maximize their allure, our ladies never lack for outdoor experiences.

Residents enjoyed a month long celebration of Christmas in July

As part of our “Pink Day” carnival, residents, family members, and friends stopped to take pictures in our pink fairytale carriage.

For decades, Mount Pleasant Baptist Church has supported our community. We are grateful for their spiritual support of our staff and residents through their Vacation Bible School Program

For outstanding service and influence as role models, both in the Petersburg community and beyond, Petersburg Home for Ladies would like to thank Fire Chief Tina R. Watkins and Sheriff Vanessa Crawford during our Juneteeth celebration.

Members of our Resident Council finalized our month long food drive. Their efforts help to support The Hope Center of Petersburg.
