Smiling faces are the hallmark of who we are. While everyday is a reason to celebrate, "PINK DAY" seems like yet another opportunity to have some fun! Special thanks to our families and youth volunteers who helped make this day a success!

Celebrating 98 Years

1925-2023

“As remarkable as the institution were the people who made it. They were gentlewomen from another age, living in what would now be called “genteel poverty,” Most had no central heat in their homes, no cars, few conveniences. Yet they abounded in the joy of living, of a story well told or a game well played, of friendship, of laughter, of family, and of their God.”

Hibernia Cuthbert

Dedicating our newly renovated gathering space and celebrating our 98th anniversary, remarkable words were shared by Assistant Fire Marshal Lemar Johnson as he emotionally detailed a story of love within the city of Petersburg, Councilman Charles Cutherbert who, when speaking of the portrait of Mary Friend Whyte stated, “I did not know her, but I grew up knowing her name...”, Board of Director’s President Barbara Finney, who spoke of the unchanging mission of Petersburg Home for Ladies to provide security, companionship, care and love, and be an agent of blessing to all, and Pastor Timothy Brindle of West End Baptist Church, who commissioned a heavenly blessing through his passionate prayers. Thank you to all who have journeyed with us for these 98 years.

Independence Day

The Spirit of ‘76 is celebrated in many ways. While traditions of “bomb pops” or tie dye shirts rank among newer conventions, the pronouncement of Liberty rings as true today as it is did on that sacred first meeting in Philadelphia 1776.
